WONDERFUL START

We are thrilled to share the latest updates on the Erasmus+ UNITY project, an initiative that has recently received approval and is off to a promising start following an engaging kick-off meeting in Sweden at the beginning of 2022. Read more about this meeting in a separate newsletter.

Exciting News from the Erasmus+ UNITY Project!

Democratic Logo Selection: In the spirit of unity and collaboration, the project partners made a collective decision on the project's logo in a truly democratic manner. This inclusive approach allowed each partner to contribute their ideas and opinions, fostering a sense of shared ownership and representation within the UNITY project.

LOOKING AHEAD

As we move forward, the UNITY project aims to bring together diverse perspectives, experiences, and expertise to address shared goals and challenges. The upcoming project period promises exciting developments, impactful collaborations, and valuable outcomes that will contribute to the overall success of the Erasmus+ UNITY initiative.
