On 07th October 2024, we held a successful UNITY Project multiplier event at the Escola Secundária de Barcelos, Portugal. The event focused on reviewing the project's progress and future plans, aimed at equipping students with 21st-century skills through STEAM education, project-based learning, and real-world contexts like climate change.

Key highlights included:

- A review of UNITY's background, progress, and future plans.
- An update on Project Results (PR1 - PR5).
- Hands-on workshops exploring resources and strategies for maximizing their impact in schools.
- Collaborative group work to brainstorm ways to implement the project's resources for educational benefits.

At the end of the event, we collected participants' opinions and signatures for the participant list, ensuring valuable feedback for future project development. For more information, visit unity4future.eu.
